

TERMINAL A GATES AT SAT TO BE RENUMBERED

October 14, 2014 (San Antonio, TX) —

Passenger gates at San Antonio International Airport's Terminal A will be renumbered, effective Wednesday, October 15, 2014. The new numbering reflects the sequential order of gate location.

Airlines will continue to operate from the same lobby ticket counters and gate locations as they do today but will adjust their electronic ticketing system and boarding passes to reflect the updated gate numbers.

Airport Ambassadors and staff will be available to assist passengers in finding gates. No interruptions in service are expected.
